What is the Difference Between a Stress Reaction and a

When we work with stress mindfully, we gradually start to see the habitual patterns of unawareness that are associated with stress reactions and begin to find new ways of dealing with it and transforming it. It is like bringing light in to the darkness of mindless reactions, which can lead you to choosing your responses to situations instead of reacting.

Stress Management Responding Rather Than Reacting

Stress Management: Responding Rather Than Reacting to Life. Stress is caused by the demands placed upon us. Stress, however, is not necessarily bad. Life would be boring without some stress, which is a common experience for retirees who suddenly find themselves with few challenges. Some become so bored they seek out new demands by volunteering or returning to work. Others sink into depression or self-destructive behaviors, and a few even seem to die from boredom and lack of challenges.
