My step brother was just killed fighting in Iraq my world

You know his father and I will sit around talking about him late at night and both of us will start to become sad. But then we think of him walking in and telling us a corny joke or we think of the good times with him and next thing you know we are laughing remembering the good times we had with him. Each person needs to deal with grief in different ways and it will take time. Hang in there and
